Psalms 126 and Psalms 127 2026 and 2027

According to the Book of Jasher, Enoch ascended into heaven in a whirlwind with horses and chariots of fire on the Biblical seventh day – entering His rest – plus the place on earth where Enoch had ascended into heaven was filled with snow and ice: "36 And when the kings returned they caused a census to be taken, in order to know the number of remaining men that went with Enoch; and it was upon the seventh day that Enoch ascended into heaven in a whirlwind with horses and chariots of fire. 37 And on the eighth day all the kings that had been with Enoch sent to bring back the number of men that were with Enoch, in that place from which he ascended into heaven. 38 And all those kings went to the place and they found the earth there filled with snow, and upon the snow were large stones of snow, and one said to the other, Come, let us break through the snow and see, perhaps the men that remained with Enoch are dead, and are now under the stones of snow, and they searched but could not find him, for he had ascended into heaven" (Jasher 3:36-38 – Ancient Book of Jasher:

Rev. 11:10 And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

When does the whole world give gifts to each other.???

- Enoch was born on Pentecost and ascended on Pentecost. According to biblical tradition, Enoch was a significant figure who walked with God and was taken to heaven on the same day he was born, which is celebrated as Pentecost. This event is often interpreted as a foreshadowing of the Rapture, where the Church is believed to be born on the Feast of Pentecost and taken to heaven.
- 1 Enoch 68:1 states: "Enoch was born on the sixth day of the month sivan, and lived three hundred and sixty-five years"
- 2 Enoch 68:1 repeats this, adding that he was taken up to heaven on the same day and hour of his birth

Winter connection

Some medieval and Ethiopian traditions, as well as certain apocryphal and pseudepigraphal sources, frame Enoch's ascensions in seasonal terms. For example, the Book of Enoch (1 Enoch 3) contains a winter passage describing the "fourteen trees" that keep their leaves through the winter, a metaphor for the righteous, and in some interpretive traditions this imagery is linked to Enoch's

The Book of Jasher is mentioned twice in the Bible—once in Joshua 10:13 and once in 2 Samuel 1:18

Βηθανία Bēthania 81

Bethany = "house of dates" or, "house of misery"

Bethany "house, place of unripe figs" (Israel is not ready) is a village located on the E slope of Mt. Olivet, about one and one-half miles from Jerusalem or (15 Furlongs). It was called also the house of misery on account of its lonely situation and the invalids who congregated there. (people who need healing hung out there).

Jesus leaves Jerusalem (the city of Peace where he was in the Temple of God) to go to a place where the figs are not ready and people who need healing hang out. He is there to call the dead back to life. Or; call the living out of a dead place

Today, our journey through biblical locations brings us to Beit Anya, Bethany. Beit Anya, (Greek: Βηθανία) is recorded in the New Testament as the home of the siblings Mary, Martha, and Lazarus, as well as that of Simon the Leper. Located near Jerusalem, on the south-eastern slopes of the Mount of Olives, Jesus is reported to have lodged there after his entry into Jerusalem, and it could be from Bethany that he parted from his disciples at the Ascension. This place, today a Palestinian village named al-Eizariya, was named as such after Lazarus, (Elazar in Hebrew). The meaning of the name Beit Anya, Bethany, is the House of Poor.
